

A Common Framework for Yukon Regional Land Use Planning

The Common Land Use Planning Process (CLUPP) consists of a framework of milestones, participant roles and core strategies. The common land use planning process is conceived as a series of defined steps toward Plan Approval and Implementation. The framework is based upon Chapter 11, Yukon First Nation Final Agreements.

STEP 1: Establish Commission

- 1.1. Identify Planning Region
- 1.2. Define Priorities, Process And Participants For Regional Planning
- 1.3. Prepare Terms of Reference

STEP 2. Startup of Commission

- 2.1. Commission Appointment
- 2.2. Commission Startup

STEP 3. Prepare Plan

- 3.1. Issues Identification
- 3.2. Gather Information
- 3.3. Plan Scenarios/Options
- 3.4. Draft Plan

STEP 4. Plan Approval and Implementation

- 4.1. Recommended Plan, Final Recommended Plan
- 4.2. Approval of Regional Land Use Plan
- 4.3. Implementation of Land Use Plan
- 4.4. Plan Review

