

A Regional Planning Forum

The Story of Wóoshtin wudidaa*
(Atlin Taku Land Use Plan)

* Tlingit name for the agreement “Wóoshtin wudidaa” means “like river flowing together” and the G2G agreement – Wóoshtin Yan too.aat – means “walking together”

Location: Whitehorse, Yukon, Westmark, Conference Room IV

Date: Thursday, November, 17, 2011

Sponsored by: Yukon Land Use Planning Council

Purpose: “to understand the process by which the Province of British Columbia and the Taku River Tlingit First Nation developed the Atlin Taku Land Use Plan. The goal is to identify the relevant “lessons learned” that may be beneficial to land use planning in the Yukon.”

Facilitator: Gerald Isaac, YLUPC
